House of Sorrows

House of Sorrows is the first ever book in English to detail the last six months of the life of the only daughter of Prophet Muhammad, Fatema az-Zahra. This book focuses on the status of Lady Fatema from Qur'anic verses and traditions and delves into the events immediately preceding the death of Prophet Muhammad. There are a number of events discussed in this text such as saqifah, the taking of Fadak, and then, in vivid words, goes through the last months of her life. Be prepared to shed tears as you read the heart-wrenching events of what happened to az-Zahra as recounted and narrated in the major books of the Ahlus Sunnah and the Shi'a.

Arba'een of Imam al-Husayn

What follows in this piece is a brief look at the "Arba'een" [the commemoration of 40 days after the tragic events of Kerbala] of Imam al-Husayn, peace be upon him. The article concludes with the Arabic text of Ziyarat Arba'een with full English translation and a brief exposition on certain passages of this powerful and moving visitation. Insha-Allah, a more comprehensive understanding of this ziyarat will be presented in the future.

Fountain of Paradise

What follows in this brief booklet is a commentary of three specific chapters from the Noble Qur'an which speak about the spiritual greatness and significance of the only daughter of Prophet Muhammad, Fāṭima Zahrā.

Translated from the original Farsi work which was compiled by a Group of Muslim Scholars under the guidance of Āyatullāh al-'Uzmā Shaykh Nāṣir Makārim Shīrāzī and other sources to complete the discussion (in certain areas as have been indicated), this publication adds merely a drop into the endless ocean of the pre-eminence of the Ahlul Bayt in the Noble Qur'an and specifically the direct and indirect mention of the Leader of the Women of all the Worlds, Fāṭima Zahrā, as spoken by Allah the Almighty.
