COMMENTARY OF SURAH AL-QALAM (c. 68)

Part Ten: Verse Nineteen & Twenty

فَطَافَ عَلَيْهَا طَائِفٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ وَهُمْ نَائِمُونَ ﴿١٩﴾

Then there encompassed it, their gardens, a visitation in the form of a punishment from your Lord while they were sleeping.

COMMENTARY OF SURAH AL-QALAM (c. 68)

Part Ten: Verse Nineteen – Twenty-Five

Point to Reflect Upon:

1. Sometimes, the “punishments” from Allah come when we least expect them to occur. We should never be complacent in our lives – and should always be looking to do good deeds.

COMMENTARY OF SURAH AL-QALAM (c. 68)

Part Ten: Verse Nineteen & Twenty

فَأَصْبَحَتْ كَالصَّرِيمِ

So it, their land and all of their crops, became a black, barren scorched land and all of their crops were destroyed.

Part Ten: Verse Nineteen & Twenty

Point to Reflect Upon:

1. The punishments of Allah are not reserved for the world to come – they can also affect us here and now.
2. Punishments from Allah in this world are for many reasons, most importantly to teach us a lesson and for us to change ourselves and our attitude.
3. The punishment should fit the crime – these brothers deprived the poor of their needs and so Allah deprived the rich of their needs too.
